Identifying number

In most cases, you do not need to file Form 2210-F. The IRS will figure any penalty you owe and send you a bill. File Form 2210-F only if one or both of the boxes in Part I apply to you. If you do not need to file Form 2210-F, you still can use it to figure your penalty. Enter the amount from line 20 on the penalty line of your return but do not attach Form 2210-F.

Part I Reasons for Filing—If box 1a below applies to you, you may be able to lower or eliminate your penalty. But you must check that box and file Form 2210-F with your tax return. If box 1b below applies to you, check that box and file Form 2210-F with your tax return.

- 1 Check whichever boxes apply (if neither applies, see the text above Part I and do not file Form 2210-F):
- a ☐ You request a waiver. In certain circumstances, the IRS will waive all or part of the penalty. See the instructions for Waiver of Penalty.
- b ☐ Your required annual payment (line 15 below) is based on your 2004 tax and you filed, or are filing, a joint return for either 2004 or 2005 but not for both years.

What's New

If you were affected by Hurricane Katrina, Hurricane Rita, or Hurricane Wilma, the due date for the January 17, 2006, required installment has been extended to February 28, 2006. See Hurricane Relief on this page.

Purpose of Form

If you are an individual or a fiduciary for an estate or trust and at least two-thirds of your 2004 or 2005 gross income is from farming or fishing, use Form 2210-F to see if you owe a penalty for underpaying your estimated tax.

For a definition of gross income from farming and fishing and more details, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

The IRS Will Figure the Penalty for You

In most cases, the IRS will figure the penalty for you. Complete your return as usual, leave the penalty line on your return blank, and do not attach Form 2210-F. If you owe the penalty, we will send you a bill. And as long as you file your return by April 17, 2006, we will not charge you interest on the penalty if you pay by the date specified on the bill.

If you checked either of the boxes in Part I of the form, you must figure the penalty yourself and attach the completed form to your return.

Who Must Pay the Underpayment Penalty

You may owe the penalty for 2005 if you did not pay at least the smaller of (a) two-thirds of the tax shown on your 2005 return or (b) the tax shown on your 2004 return.

Return. In these instructions, "return" refers to your original income tax return. However, an amended return is considered the original return if it is filed by the due date (including extensions) of the original return. Also, a joint return that replaces previously filed separate returns is considered the original return.

Exceptions to the Penalty

You will not have to pay the penalty or file this form if any of the following applies.

- You file your return and pay the tax due by March 1, 2006.
- You had no tax liability for 2004, you were a U.S. citizen or resident for all of 2004, and your 2004 return was, or would have been had you been required to file, for a full 12 months.
- The total tax shown on your 2005 return minus the amount of tax you paid through withholding is less than $1,000. To determine whether the total tax is less than $1,000, complete lines 2 through 13.

Hurricane Relief

If you were affected by Hurricane Katrina, Hurricane Rita, or Hurricane Wilma, the due date for the January 17, 2006, required estimated tax payment has been extended to February 28, 2006.

Who is eligible for relief. The following individuals, estates, and trusts are eligible for the extension.

- Any individual whose principal residence is located in the covered disaster area,
- Any individual whose principal residence is not located in the covered disaster area, but whose tax professional, practitioner, or records necessary to meet a filing or payment deadline are maintained in the covered disaster area,
- Any relief worker who assisted in the covered disaster area,
- Any individual visiting the covered disaster area who was killed or injured as a result of the hurricane or its aftermath,
- Any spouse of an affected taxpayer, solely with regard to a joint return of the husband and wife, and
- Any estate or trust that has tax records necessary to meet a filing or payment deadline in the covered disaster area.

The covered disaster area includes any county or parish designated by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) as an individual assistance area or a public assistance area. A list of the designated counties and parishes can be found in Pub. 4492.

Individuals, estates, and trusts in the counties and parishes designated by FEMA as individual assistance areas will automatically receive the extension. They can mark "Hurricane Katrina," "Hurricane Rita," or "Hurricane Wilma" in red ink on the top of their return and Form 2210-F. While they are not required to mark their return or Form 2210-F, they are strongly encouraged to do so.

Individuals, estates, and trusts in areas designated by FEMA as public assistance areas and those outside the affected area whose books, records, or tax professionals are located in the affected areas need to mark "Hurricane Katrina," "Hurricane Rita," or "Hurricane Wilma" in red ink on the top of their return and Form 2210-F.

If you are entitled to hurricane relief, change the date on line 19 from January 15, 2006, to February 28, 2006, and enter on line 19 only the number of days from February 28, 2006, to the date on line 18.

More information. For more information about hurricane relief, see Pub. 4492.

Waiver of Penalty

If you have an underpayment on line 17, all or part of the penalty for that underpayment will be waived if the IRS determines that:

- The underpayment was due to a casualty, disaster, or other unusual circumstance, and it would be inequitable to impose the penalty, or
- In 2004 or 2005, you retired after reaching age 62 or became disabled, and your underpayment was due to reasonable cause.

To request either of the above waivers, do the following:

- Check the box on line 1a.
- Complete Form 2210-F up to line 20 without regard to the waiver. Enter the amount you want waived in parentheses on the dotted line to the left of line 20. Subtract this amount from the total penalty you figured without regard to the waiver and enter the result on line 20.
- Attach Form 2210-F and a statement to your return explaining the reasons you were unable to meet the estimated tax requirements.

- If you are requesting a penalty waiver due to a casualty, disaster, or other unusual circumstance, attach documentation such as police and insurance company reports.
- If you are requesting a penalty waiver due to retirement or disability, attach documentation that shows your retirement date (and your age on that date) or the date you became disabled.

The IRS will review the information you provide and will decide whether to grant your request for a waiver.

Specific Instructions

If you file an amended return by the due date of your original return, use the amounts shown on your amended return to figure your underpayment. If you file an amended return after the due date of your original return, use the amounts shown on the original return.

Exception. If you and your spouse file a joint return after the due date to replace previously filed separate returns, use the amounts shown on the joint return to figure your underpayment.

Line 3

Enter the total of the following amounts on line 3.

- Self-employment tax.
- Tax from recapture of investment credit, low-income housing credit, qualified electric vehicle credit, Indian employment credit, new markets credit, or credit for employer-provided childcare facilities.
- Tax on early distributions from (a) an IRA or other qualified retirement plan, (b) an annuity, or (c) a modified endowment contract entered into after June 20, 1988.
- Tax on distributions from a Coverdell education savings account or a qualified tuition program not used for qualified education expenses.
- Tax on Archer MSA or health savings account distributions not used for qualified medical expenses.

- Section 72(m)(5) penalty tax.
- Advance earned income credit payments.
- Interest due under sections 453(l)(3) and 453A(c) on certain installment sales of property.
- Tax on income not effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business from Form 1040NR, lines 53 and 56.
- An increase or decrease in tax as a shareholder in a qualified electing fund.
- Tax on accumulation distribution of trusts.
- Tax on electing small business trusts included on Form 1041, Schedule G, line 7.
- Household employment taxes, before subtracting any advance EIC payments made to your employees. Do not include this amount if you will enter -0- on Form 2210-F, line 12, and the amount on line 10 (excluding household employment taxes) would be less than $1,000.

Line 4

If Form 2210-F, line 4, is less than $1,000, you do not owe the estimated tax penalty. Do not file Form 2210-F.

Line 12

Enter the taxes withheld shown on Form 1040, lines 64 and 67; Form 1040NR, lines 59, 61, 66, 67, and 68. For an estate or trust, enter the amount from Form 1041, line 24e.

Line 14

Figure your 2004 tax by using the taxes and credits shown on your 2004 tax return. Use the same taxes and credits shown on lines 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, and 8 of this form.

If you are filing a joint return for 2005 but you did not file a joint return for 2004, add the tax shown on your 2004 return to the tax shown on your spouse's 2004 return and enter the total on line 14 (figured as explained above). If you filed a joint return for 2004 but you are not filing a joint return for 2005, see Pub. 505 to figure your share of the 2004 tax to enter on line 14.

If you did not file a return for 2004 or if your 2004 tax year was less than 12 months, do not complete line 14. Instead, enter the amount from line 11 on line 15. However, see Exceptions to the Penalty on page 2.

Line 16

If you are a household employer and made advance EIC payments, include those payments as of the date you paid the wages to your employee(s).
